

Next GAP Program

We recognize our role in shaping the Next Generation of Agricultural Professionals. As the employment gap continues to grow, we need to take a proactive approach in building the talent of the future.

We are currently seeking applications for our Next GAP Program (start date May 2025).

This program is designed to provide a dynamic and engaging 18-24 month rotational, experiential learning opportunity, intended for new grads with an interest in agriculture and a desire to learn the insurance industry. It will combine formal technical training with hands-on experience. Following the successful completion of the program, the individual may be extended an offer to join the organization on a permanent, full-time basis. Future employment offers will take into consideration both the Agri-Professional's preferences and Trillium's organizational needs.

Program Overview

Program participants will be encouraged to take an engaging approach to shape their own learning experience. Regular feedback, coaching and thoughtful goal setting with program mentors will help provide guidance through this process.

This role provides the successful candidate the ability to work as a hybrid position. High-speed Internet and reliable connectivity are required.

The main experiential rotations will be in the following business areas:

- Underwriting (9-12 months)
- Claims/Risk Management (9-12 months)

In addition, learning opportunities will be made available through meaningful time spent with the following teams:

- Business Development
- Finance
- Business Information Systems
- Strategy (i.e. Enterprise Risk Management, Strategic Planning, Legislation)

Engaging experiences beyond standard role operations will also be provided, including:

- Gain industry knowledge by attending internal and external training sessions
- Meet and network with expert partners in the industry
- Represent Trillium at a range of external events
- Opportunities to start industry designations
- Broker/Staff event coordination
- Brand awareness, creating impact as a Campus Ambassador
- Learn about Trillium's community and wellness priorities through optional participation on various committees, such as DE&I, Sustainability, Wellness In Action Team or ROOTS
