

President & Chief Executive Officer (CEO)

This is an exceptional opportunity for an executive who believes in the value and the opportunity to inspire others.

Grenville Mutual is a company that believes in its commitment to the Mutual community in Canada, to the empowerment of our staff, and to an exceptional work environment. We take a visionary and bold approach to our industry and are well known for those qualities.

As the strategic visionary for the organization, the President & CEO is directly responsible for the continuous improvement of the organization's business model for the betterment of its Policyholder community.

You reveal a solid understanding of leading governance and operational practices, and actively demonstrate skills required to work collaboratively with a strong Leadership Group. Within broad strategic guidelines benefiting from a comprehensive transition plan and the deep corporate knowledge of the out-going President & CEO and the Leadership Group, you contribute to the successful achievement of the company's vision and strategic goals.
