

Germania Mutual Insurance Company

Germania Mutual, established in 1878, continues to be a progressive and innovative workplace, while ensuring integrity and stability remain uncompromised. We are excited to announce that we are looking to grow our team.

Germania is looking for its next Underwriting Assistant. Intrigued? Read on!

As the Underwriting Assistant for Germania Mutual, you will have to possess great analytic skills. Your goals will include working towards business targets and objectives established for the company. Your success in this role will help develop and maintain positive broker relations and create dependable superior service.

At Germania, we expect a lot from our employees. That is why we offer so much in return! In addition to a competitive salary, we offer benefits, a pension plan, and a work environment that supports a healthy work-life balance.

Not everyone can be Germania's next Underwriting Assistant. To be seriously considered for the position, the ideal candidate will demonstrate the following attributes:

- Education: University degree/ College diploma, C.I.P. designation or transferable insurance experience
- Skills: Excellent communication, analytical, adaptability to change and working in a team environment. Proficiency using a computer, Microsoft applications, and e-mail is a necessity. As well, the intuition to learn new programs and software is a highly valued asset.

Please apply now if you feel you are the right candidate. We are excited to hear from you! As much as we would like to reach out to all applicants, only applicants being interviewed will be contacted.
